A Good Time Had By All. . .

❖ Altoona Curve Baseball Game (June 12th)

25 Club Members enjoyed a great game between the Curve (Rail Kings) and the Erie SeaWolves with the Curve (Rail Kings) winning by the score of 10 – 6.

Every Thursday this season, the Curve are celebrating the independent baseball team that helped pave the way as they rebrand to the Altoona Rail Kings by wearing a version of their original home white jerseys and green-on-green caps! The Rail Kings played for two seasons (1996 and 1997).

The weather was great, and everyone was able to enjoy a fantastic fireworks show after the game.

It was great to have Club Member Marty Silverman and his wife Eva attend (as they drove the farthest from Hidden Valley!). Club Members Carol and Clyde Smith were there as well. Great to see all turn out for this event.

Thanks to Club President Bob Snoby for organizing AND throwing out the first pitch! (Cy Young Award could be in Bob's future).

❖ Club Mixer/Meeting (June 19th)

NyKo's

What a wonderful turnout at NyKo's for our June get together, even though the rain kept us from enjoying their patio area. 28 Club Members enjoyed the delicious menu options, including their well-known sushi. As always, Dave and the wait staff are very welcoming and hospitable to the Ski Club. We had two guests from "over the pond". We were happy to meet the friends of Lenore Beck and Bob Rauch – Sandy and Nat from England! We had Sandy pull the 50/50 ticket. . .and she pulled her own!!! Now she needs to play the lottery!
